- Offer students a broad array of additional services, programs and activities (such as youth development activities, drug and violence prevention programs, counseling programs, art, music, recreation, technology education programs and character education programs) that are designed to reinforce and complement the regular academic program of participating students; and
- Offer opportunities for literacy and related educational development to families of participating students.

Eligible Applicants: Eligible applicants may be local education agencies, community-based organizations, including faith-based organizations, institutions of higher education, city or county government agencies, for-profit corporations and other public or private entities. A community-based organization is defined as a public or private for-profit or nonprofit organization that is representative of the community and has demonstrated experience or promise of success in providing educational and related activities that will complement and enhance the academic performance, achievement and positive youth development of students. While all organizations are eligible to apply, they MUST be partnered with an eligible school to be considered for funding.

Grant Period: May 1, 2014-April 30, 2015 Funds available for up to 5 years. Annual funding is contingent upon satisfactory progress toward 21st CCLC objectives, compliance with both state and federal regulations that include local evaluation and continuous improvement processes, and the availability of federal funds. For applications that propose to serve multiple schools, at least 51% of those schools must be either operating as a Title I schoolwide school or be able to document at least 40% of the students qualify for free or reduced price lunch to receive priority points.

Programs should propose to serve students who attend schools identified for improvement (pursuant to Section 1116 of Title I) or those identified as a high priority in the school district. Additionally, school district Subgrantees should continue to partner with at least one public or private community organization.

21st Century Application Approval / Disapproval Copy Email Addresses

E-mails notifying applicants of this application's approval or return for changes will be sent to each e-mail address entered below (limit five). It is not necessary to enter the e-mail address for the Authorized Representative.

Describe the safety plans in place to address the following: Student supervision at all times, background checks for all staff before working with students, weather, fire and emergency/crisis procedures, procedures for safe drop off and pick up, and parent notification regarding attendance.(3451 of 5000 maximum characters used)

ACCISS participants are supervised and under the observation of ACCISS staff at all times. ACCISS considers participant safety its most important responsibility and the program policies reflect this commitment. As City of Cheyenne Office of Youth Alternatives employees, ACCISS site staff requires a complete police background check, by the Department of Family Services and NCIC prior to employment. A majority of the ACCISS program activities are held within Laramie County School District #1 facilities; therefore, ACCISS follows all LCSD #1 weather, fire and emergency procedures. Activities in-transit or not at LCSD #1 facilities require students to follow staff directions in emergency situations. Staff communicates their expectations when inside and outside of the center daily and upon the onset of each program activity. All staff vehicles contain binders that include emergency and crisis procedures, emergency contact information and first-aid-kits. Johnson Junior High School and the ACCISS staff have added additional internal controls to track students participating in after school programs and to enhance safety and security. Attendees sign in and out at the start/end of their participation in ACCISS. School staff members lock all exterior doors fifteen minutes after the end of the school day. Each participating ACCISS student is issued a lanyard and laminated card that identifies them and the activity they are participating in at ACCISS. Staff members collect lanyards at the end of the day to ensure students are accounted for and have remained under staff supervision. This prevents students from slipping out under the guise of a "restroom break" or other subterfuge and wandering school halls. School staff members are briefed to bring any students in the halls to the school office or ACCISS office if there are any questions concerning their presence in the school after hours. During summer and school break activities, the ACCISS staff dismisses walking students five minutes prior to scheduled bus/van departures. This procedure allows staff to better control end of day activities and to track individuals assigned to different modes of transportation home. A staff member remains with students being picked up by parents until the parent/ride arrives. Training and procedures emphasize staff members physically seeing/contacting any person picking up the teen at the end of the day. Staff members communicate via telephone, email or in-person with parents regarding attendance regularly. Students with periodic or sporadic attendance are closely monitored and ACCISS works with parents and LCSD#1 staff to improve regular attendance and prevent truancy daily or dependent upon the needs of the participant and his/her family. At the end of the program day, many participants are transported from the center home. The transportation of ACCISS participants is shared by ACCISS and LCSD #1 bus transportation. School district drivers follow district policy when picking up/dropping off. ACCISS drop student participants only at their individual residence unless they directly communicate with a parent/guardian and receive other directions. Parents have access to the Office of Youth Alternatives office staff or 24 hour on-call services in the event that a student does not arrive home as expected. Additionally, all ACCISS site staff members receive yearly CPR and First Aid training through the City of Cheyenne.

Describe how the transportation needs of participants will be addressed to include getting to and from the center, field trip information dissemination, bus safety training.(971 of 2000 maximum characters used)

ACCISS program transportation responsibilities are shared between Laramie County School District #1 and the Office of Youth Alternatives a City of Cheyenne agency. ACCISS participants who live outside school district bus routes or who require transportation based on the ACCISS activity they are participating in are transported door-to-door in Cheyenne city owned/maintained vans. The ACCISS center is located within the JJHS facility and a majority of ACCISS activities occur at the school. Field trip information is transmitted to parents via written letters, email and telephone calls. Field trips require additional release of liability waivers signed by parent/guardian(s). The center is centrally located within the neighborhood and also allows for participants who walk to school to walk home following activities. Summer transportation is wholly provided using City of Cheyenne vehicles operated by staff members who provide daily safety briefings to all riders.

Describe your plans to update/increase your organizations grant management capacity including education/training and processes to ensure on-time, accurate reporting.(1926 of 2000 maximum characters used)

LCCP has been the sub recipient of several 21CCLC grants, including Cohorts 3, 4, 5, 6, 8 and NASA funding. The LCCP provides grant management, or project coordination, as the fiscal agent for the 21CCLC and works in partnership with Youth Alternatives to provide the ACCISS program under the Cohort 8 grant. LCCP has the organizational, management and professional knowledge required to manage federal grant funding including a CPA, managing all federal grants to ensure GAAP and grant fiscal compliance and reporting. According to the requirements of the OMB Circular and Edgar, the appropriate audit is conducted each year. LCCP has never been considered high-risk, and there have never been any grant findings in the previous audits. A project coordination communication plan has been developed for the Administrative and Program components of LCCP's Cohort 8 grant ensuring timely, thorough and accurate communication and reporting. The communication plan includes procedures on information requests from the Wyoming Department of Education and weekly communication and monthly meetings between program and administrative staff. A planning calendar has been developed for the Cohort 8 grant, also, ensuring proactive rather than reactive planning and reporting. A clear division of duties between the Project Coordinator and Program Director has been developed and communicated, also. In May 2014, the Cohort 8 Project Coordinator is scheduled to attend training to review current information on OMB Circular and EDGAR. LCCP and ACCISS take advantage of training opportunities, including but not limited to strategic planning and grant writing seminars. In the summer of 2014, the LCCP's 21CCLC Project Coordinator will attend the required APAS training and a Summer Seminar. The 21CCLC Project Coordinator and ACCISS center staff will attend WYAA Annual Conference which is followed by the 21CCLC WDE annual meeting.

9. Additional Needs Statements

Enter any additional needs of the targeted populations in the schools that you plan to address with the 21 CCLC program. (1493 of 2500 maximum characters used)

In 2012, the LCCP's Healthier Laramie County coalition conducted a comprehensive community needs assessment to identify and prioritize the needs in the community. The coalition identified that after school care, tutoring, mentoring and prevention programs were not accessible, affordable nor meeting growing diverse needs and decreasing graduation rates. In addition, students are confronted by increased community risk factors and reduced community protective factors. A majority of Incoming JJHS 2014-2015 academic year 7th graders will originate from the eight elementary schools in the south triad of LCSD #1. In October of 2014, the south triad elementary schools have an average of 64.59% student eligibility for free or reduced lunch ranging from 45.53% student free or reduced eligibility at Sunrise Elementary to 88.77% eligibility at Hebard Elementary. All but two of the eight south triad elementary schools are classified Title I schools. The 2012-2013 PAWS testing data indicates the elementary schools in the south triad had an average 27.89% of 6th grade students less than proficient in reading, and 28.59% of 6th graders were less than proficient in math. In 2012-2013 PAWS testing indicated that 37.72% of 5th grade students in the south triad were less than proficient in reading and 27.75% were less than proficient in math. These 5th and 6th graders are the 7th and 8th graders the ACCISS program will serve in the upcoming 2014 summer program and 2014-2015 academic year.

For the upcoming year, identify your target population and the data used to determine your focus. Also describe how the program will address the following 21st CCLC requirements in 2014-15: Highly-qualified staff, effective academic support, variety of engaging activities, meeting the participant and regular attendee targets, providing safe and accessible facilities, and providing transportation that facilitate participation of at-risk children in the program. (3889 of 5000 maximum characters used)

ACCISS will provide academic enrichment aligned with the school day and will serve 150 students 65% of which will attend regularly from the 7th and 8th grade at Johnson Junior High School. The 2014-2015 enrollment target represents 22.62% and 14.71%, respectively. Through LCCP conducts periodic comprehensive community needs assessments (CCNA), the 2010-2011 71.97% LCSD #1 high school graduation rate was identified as an alarming indicator by the Healthier Laramie County coalition. The various community partners and local agencies engaged in the development of 2013-2016 Laramie County Community Health Improvement plan based on the 2012 CCNA determined the path of the CHIP's strategies and priorities. The decision to continue to focus on the Johnson Junior High student population by ACCISS was a founded on the school's status as a Title I School in AYA Year 8 with a student population that where 60.94% of 7th and 8th students qualify for free or reduced lunch. According to the 2012-2013 PAWs data, 47.72% of 7th graders and 36.90% 8th graders are below proficient in reading, and 46.66% of 7th graders and 46.20% of 8th graders are below proficient in math. STEM and other enrichment activities will be led by staff with academic degrees or direct experience in a the field for which they are instructing and developing curriculum. ACCISS plans to retain and grow programs demonstrating positive academic outcomes including extended library hours; the success program targeting students with grades of "D" or below; Daily Homework Helpers; and Weekly Readers. The academic enrichment curriculum focuses on STEAM activities while continuing to develop student/student, student/staff, school/student and student/parent/school relationships through recreation, prevention and academic enrichment. Specific activities include semester long STEM classes meeting twice a week for 2 hours using Project STEM curriculum including building for earthquakes, prosthetic designs, space vehicles and roller coaster design. Additional activities include Museum a Month and daily art and recreation while supporting State Core State Standards. The ACCISS program continues to build upon foundation laid in 2007-2012 Cohort 4 and the 2013-2014 Cohort 8 year at the community learning center at Johnson Junior High School in LCSD #1. The ACCISS program has continued to grow its participant population, including regular attendees each new academic year. This growth is as a result of the partnership between the JJHS and LCSD #1; JJHS provides offices during the regular school day, classrooms after-school, and other facilities to ACCISS. The ACCISS's integration into the JJHS school day provides greater opportunity for student engagement and JJHS administration, counselor, teacher and other staff ACCISS program referrals. ACCISS will provide the challenging academic enrichment thought-provoking programming and connecting community resources to address individual risk contributing to a school's student success. Although transportation is available to all ACCISS participants, one of the program's advantages lie in its safe and accessible physical presence within the school eliminating many transportation needs and costs. As a result of the bus transportation provided by both ACCISS and the LCSD #1, students are given the opportunity to take full advantage of the extended library hours provided by the 21CCLC funding; the Success program targeting students with grades of "D" or below gives the struggling student an environment that challenges failure, champions academic accomplishment, and emphasizes college preparation. The additional time participants spend at the Johnson Junior High and the relationships built within the ACCISS program has allowed for a greater connection to school by many ACCISS participants, increasing a protective factor for at-risk children.

Program Abstract Continuing Program

Provide a brief summary of your 21 CCLC program including 1) purpose and focus of your program (i.e. mission) 2) specific student outcomes your working toward, and services to students and their families, 3) strategies you will use to achieve the 21 CCLC goals and local objectives, and 4) indicators of program success. This abstract may be used online to describe your own program. (2973 of 3000 maximum characters used)

The purpose/mission of the Office of Youth Alternatives/ACCISS program is to inspire and support students at Johnson Junior High School to achieve their full potential, and enhance their abilities and strengths as individuals through positive adult and peer-to-peer relationships. Focus includes: social, educational and recreational programming within a safe, motivating and caring environment. ACCISS goals include: improving the emotional, academic, and vocational competencies of our youth, increasing family support and interaction with students, teachers and administrators while reducing negative youth behaviors. Expected outcomes include measurable improvement in attitudes toward increased STEM skills, and a higher interest in STEM fields as measured by beginning/end of year surveys. Other outcomes include increasing participating student's classroom involvement by 50% and decreasing negative behaviors by 50% as measured by teacher surveys. Decreasing absenteeism in ACCISS students by 15% from the previous school year is another expected outcome. Finally, increasing parent/family involvement by 40% in after-school enrichment programming is another ACCISS goal. Strategies for achieving goals and outcomes include offering engaging, hands-on and varied programming that makes students and families want to "fully invest" in ACCISS. Project STEM curriculum throughout the school year and during summer long STEM camps include courses on building for earthquakes, space vehicles, designing prosthetic and roller coasters, water purification design and eco-friendly dams. Groups of 5 students will design and execute a project. The program is designed to be progressive in developing ideas and meeting Next Generation standards. With 80% of careers expected to require STEM skills, one goal is to encourage student/family interest in STEM careers. Targeted recruiting and enrichment activities address 21st CCLC goals of "helping students in high poverty, low performing schools meet academic achievement standards." Enrichment and Recreation programs enhance STEM curriculum while providing support to achieve 21st CCLC's goal of "offering a broad array of high quality enrichment activities" Activities offered include: arts, fitness and recreation. Curriculum will reinforce state/district standards while accentuating everyday science. Extended library hours will provide homework assistance and technology resource access. The Success Program identifies students at risk for poor grades and through positive staff/student relationships and intervention provides academic assistance through tutoring and homework help. Family Library Nights involve parents/families in literacy improvement activities and will increase interest in the award winning Laramie County Library resources. Weekly Reader trips allow students to experience library benefits. A recognition program will allow students to present lessons learned at bi-monthly family nights.

Professional Development

Provide your professional development plan for the upcoming year. Be specific to the needs of staff and how you will support meeting those needs in an ongoing professional development scenario to ensure that all staff acquire the skills necessary to meet the objectives of the local program. Please include your plans for supporting a successful implementation of the APAS, Program Quality Evaluation tools (training, mentoring, additional staff meetings, etc). (2458 of 5000 maximum characters used)

Developing a well-trained, high quality staff through staff meetings, staff and subject matter expert led training sessions and available opportunities through local community resources is a goal of ACCISS. Providing weekly training sessions for staff in an interactive format that emphasize and reinforce previously learned skills or less time intensive subjects is one method that will be employed. Week long training before school/summer sessions is a second method of training that will be used. Webinars, in-class and seminar based learning is the final method of staff development. Aligning personal/professional goals and shaping and guiding attitudes/understanding of the programs focus is a key component of staff development. Initial training will focus on: ensuring staff understands and embraces the goals, purpose and vision of the program & developing individual skills and confidence. Additionally, building staff member's excitement and enthusiasm about the value and importance of their job and making staff members feel connected and supported are key factors in creating a culture of excellence. Coaching via the STEM Instructor will "pre-teach" curriculum to the staff during training sessions and staff will constructively criticize and refine curriculum to address student/staff needs. Educating staff on forthcoming lessons will allow them to better understand and assist with delivering the subject matter. Planned training sessions on curriculum, behavior intervention, areas requiring improvement and other subjects will be delivered. Involving staff in the development and presentation of lesson plans to their fellow staff will increase buy-in, confidence and skills. With a direct connection to the Office of Youth Alternatives, ACCISS has numerous opportunities for already developed continuing education seminars. For instance, in January 2014, ACCISS staff members attended a Wyoming Department of Health seminar offered on "Strengthening Families". An ever deepening relationship with Laramie County School District #1 has previously afforded staff members to attend national conferences and local district training on youth and education related subjects. In coordination with the LCSD #1 school calendar, the ACCISS staff development annual training plan will include lessons on: volunteer recruitment, instructional skills development, parent involvement, youth work skills, and working with parents and families.

Annual Program Review

Please discuss your program (summer and school year) evaluation process and data analysis for 2013-14 grant year in relation to the following:

1. Program Objective, (541 of 3000 maximum characters used)

Recruit a high risk demographically representative student base: 37% from single parent families; 80% eligible for free or reduced lunch; 75% at risk for academic failure. Academic enrichment and support to reduce class failures, and poor grades creating a 25% increase in grades and a 35% increase in student scores on MAP and PAWS Math and language tests. Parent and family involvement will increase 40% over the course of the school year as measured by percentage of parents of active participant's attendance at planned ACCISS family.

2. Data collected to measure your effectiveness including what measurement/assessment and how often (monthly, quarterly, etc)? (589 of 3000 maximum characters used)

ACCISS tracks program recruitment efforts monthly. Enrollment packages track the family demographics of participants. Weekly checks are made of the school generated "D and F" list to help staff members identify and intervene when students show increased risk factors for failure. Parent, teacher and student surveys were distributed in early April 2014 to gather additional academic, behavior and other data. The ACCISS staff is currently gathering and compiling this data. PAWs and other standardized test scores will be available later in the year and provided through the APAS report.

3. Results (ex. target was 50%, data shows 65% met objective), (753 of 3000 maximum characters used)

32 of 78 participating students currently enrolled are being raised by single parents, Grandparents or other than two parent families. 40 of 78 JJHS students in the ACCISS program have received academic support/intervention this school year. Johnson Junior High School has a Free and Reduced lunch rate of 61% ACCISS is in the process of developing a database that captures this data for ACCISS students for future reporting. The first Intro to ACCISS night in September 2013 had 55 parents and family members in attendance. Family Literacy Night at the Laramie County Library drew 75 people. The ACCISS family Holiday Party resulted in 87 family members attending to view art work, talk to staff about youth achievements and celebrate the holidays.

4. Discuss, if applicable, anticipated data not available in March and how did you compensated? and (322 of 3000 maximum characters used)

With APAS results not expected until late summer or early Fall, ACCISS created 3 surveys for parents, students and school administrators to gauge student interests, measure improvements in academics, attendance and behaviors and to solicit suggestions and feedback. Collection dates for these surveys are late April 2014.

5. How the results were used to develop the 2014-15 plan aligned to the Wyoming 21CCLC Goals. (867 of 3000 maximum characters used)

Recruitment information and data continues to be used by ACCISS staff members to guide both future recruitment efforts and to validate successful practices. This data further serves to guide late spring recruitment efforts at elementary feeder schools when providing criteria to grade level teachers and principals outlining summer programming opportunities and student identification for transitioning to 7th grade and joining ACCISS. Weekly "D and F" reports serve to provide immediate feedback and allow ACCISS staff to target individual students at risk for failure before major problems occur. Data from attendance at Family Nights serves to guide future events that engage and involve parents and families. ACCISS plans to follow guidelines in the "Engaging Families in Out-of-School Time Programs Toolkit" to further track and improve services in this area.

LCCP has contracted and developed a long-term contractual partnership with the City of Cheyenne's Office of Youth Alternatives (OYA) to collaborate on the development and implementation of a teen after-school academic enrichment program at Johnson Junior High, creating the Alternative Center for Community Involvement and School Success (ACCISS). The partnership has worked in trust for both the 2013-2018 current 21CCLC Cohort 8 funding and previous NASA and Cohorts 4 & 5 funding, in addition to other local and state prevention grant funding. The ACCISS partnership allows both organizations to leverage community resources and individual organization services. LCCP has a network of over 65 partnering agencies from various community organizations and state and local governmental agencies that will be utilized as resources via the 21CCLC Project Coordinator for the ACCISS participant families. The OYA provides family-centered program that is designed to respond to the needs of troubled youth and their families, including family referrals from the ACCISS program. The ACCISS program works with the City of Cheyenne Parks and Recreation to provide facilities for various student events, including but not limited to week-long school breaks during the academic year. ACCISS will leverage the partnership with the local community college, Laramie County Community College, to provide volunteer staffing for various recreational activities. The Wyoming Institute of Population Health will provide program advisory, grant management and fund raising guidance. The award winning Laramie County Library will be utilized for weekly student trips and quarterly family nights; in addition, library staff will provide information and assist with family nights.

21 CCLC programs are strongly encouraged to identify other sources of funding and to describe in the 21 CCLC grant application how all of these resources will be combined to offer a high-quality, sustainable program. In order for the comprehensive plan to be effective in the long term, it must include strategies to ensure the funded projects and activities will continue beyond the five-year grant cycle. All applicants are expected to identify and engage collaborative partners who can contribute to developing a vision and planning model for financial capacity to support, and eventually sustain, the community learning center after the five-year grant funding ceases. Beginning with Cohort 8 grants, awards received in Years 4 and 5 will 15% less than the Year 1 original grant amount, even if subsequent years are reduced due to a reduction in overall Federal funding. No award will fall below the minimum $50,000 requirement.

Eligible applicants applying for funds are required to make a preliminary plan to describing how the community learning center will continue as the level of funding decreases in Years 4 and 5 and after 21 CCLC funding ends. Planning for sustainability must be clearly addressed and should identify the resources that will be available to continue the program at the levels proposed. The plan should include, but is not limited, to the following:

- a. specific partnerships and the role and level of participation of each partnering agency;
- b. other public or private sector funding sources that will be developed; and
- c. other forms of program support anticipated from the school, community, and/or private sector. (3784 of 5000 maximum characters used)
